December 2022 Newsletter MNCABA President's Report

Hello everyone,

There was a great role up at our Christmas meeting which was held at the Ocean View Hotel in Urunga. Thanks to Monica, Merridy and Alison for the organisational work, which made this event delightfully special.

A huge range of platters were served to us by the friendly staff and no one went home hungry.

The function was primarily social, but never to miss an opportunity for education, a quiz was conducted, in groups of two or three. There was a little bit of cheating by some likely lads in the back corner (thanks to Google), but Alison and Julie were the winners. It was a bit of fun and no, bees don't have 8 legs as one couple thought.

The lucky draw table was stacked with great prizes and everyone got something. One of the prizes, a propolis mat was new to nearly all of us. Paul was able to enlighten us on its use.

As usual, there will be no meeting in January. The next meeting will be hosted by Andrea and Clive at Gumma, near Macksville. Watch for details closer to the time.

Have a great Christmas and New Year. See you in 2023.

Regards,

Allan
